Dear Sir

icare and State Insurance & Care Governance Act 2015 Independent Review

The Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP) represents over 10 000 general practitioners (GP) in New South Wales, many of whom treat workers compensation and Compulsory Third Party (CTP) patients.

The RACGP would be pleased to offer assistance to the independent review, including solutions such as the development of treatment guidelines.

Yours faithfully

Assoc. Professor Charlotte Hespe
Faculty Chair
RACGP NSW&ACT
