As the government doesn't directly support tenants, pay small landlords for the extra support required, by government

If not paid why will they participate?

It's all landlords risk nil government risk with tenants few if which are angel's.

I e calling electrician to change light bulbs, which is tenants responsibility. Smoke detectors were tenants responsibility but as they wouldn't, now landlords. Who pays, landlords. Put up rents can't do that,

Just continue to make it impossible see the results
