

I think there should be a law brought in were if they want you to move out you should be able to stay in the house until you find somewhere new to live . And rent shouldn't go up.so high and they can only put it up every so often . Why should little kids and babies end up on the streets

Get Outlook for Android